- Rohtang Pass Excursion is not included in the above tour cost. Further to the severe strikes by Local taxi Unions in May 2014, the NGT law allows a limited number of specifically categorized cars to Rohtang, which are mostly the Union andrsquo;s Vehicles. The law and the rules are still undergoing changes and might change again in the near future. Hence, we cannot assure Rohtang excursion unless the court declares its final judgement. However, the clients can directly hire local cars as per availability or look out for public transport like HPTDC buses. The hotel andrsquo;s reception shall assist them in this.
- Travelling in winter from November to February is peak winter period and hence chances of heavy snowfall at Shimla, Manali, upper Dharamshala and Dalhousie region. Also during winters, we suggest hotels near to the city centre only
- During sightseeing in Manali, our vehicle will drop the client in the parking area. Clients have to reach Temples/Monuments by walk.
- Rohtang pass remains closed from November till mid-May due to heavy snow. Hence will take the guest up till snow line towards Rohtang pass. Hence Mentioned Snow point only. Also due to heavy snow, some sightseeing or excursion of Dalhousie, Manali and Shimla might not possible. But there would not be any compensation in cost and tour cost would remain the same.
- Rohtang Pass excursion will depend on the availability of the permit and guest has to pay environmental tax and snow point vehicle charge directly, if applicable.
- In case of heavy snowfall although local administration tries to clear the main road as soon as possible. but all our drivers are also instructed that in such situation when if they see that weather is bad and there is a chance of snowfall than driver always keep the vehicle at some nearer distance on the lower height where less snow falls.
- However, in this situation, any expenditure occurred to reach from the hotel till your vehicle parking or vice versa, like local porters to carry the luggage or some horse, pony or local vehicle like a 4x4 armada, Jeepsy etc that expenditures would be born by the guest only.
